

7 April 2014

New Executive Manager appointed for CCRDC

The Central Coast Regional Development Corporation (CCRDC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Greg South to the position of Executive Manager. Greg South possesses significant experience in managing all aspects of business operations and will bring tremendous leadership to CCRDC.

With close to three decades in a long and distinguished career, Greg South has held various executive positions. Greg South's previous roles span successful terms in parts of Transfield Pty Ltd, Stal Refrigeration Pty Limited and Landcom/UrbanGrowth NSW.

Prior to his appointment, Greg spent twelve years at Landcom/UrbanGrowth NSW, where he most recently served as the Chief Operating Officer. In that role, Greg was responsible for developing, negotiating and executing contracts, as well as managing all commercial and operational aspects associated with new business opportunities.

Greg South said he is thrilled to be joining CCRDC and is looking forward to overseeing the Corporation's operations and leading the team to new heights on the Central Coast.

"I'm excited about this new opportunity to lead CCRDC. This is truly an exciting time. Major revitalisation and reactivation projects are being undertaken on the Central Coast which will produce extensive benefits for the area and its residents. I look forward to working with the community, business sector and all levels of government as a means of contributing to the region's economic development and growth," CCRDC General Manager, Greg South said.

Greg South graduated from Macquarie University with a Bachelor of Economics. He is also a Certified Practising Accountant.

In the coming weeks, Greg South will be working with Graeme Inchley, CCRDC's Chairman to transition into his new role. Graeme is delighted that CCRDC was able to secure such talent and eagerly anticipates the prospect of working with him.

"We welcome Greg to CCRDC. He is highly credentialed and has a diverse professional background. We look forward to his wealth of knowledge, experience and enthusiasm," CCRDC Chairman, Graeme Inchley said.

CCRDC

The Central Coast Regional Development Corporation (CCRDC) is a State Government entity and part of the Department of Planning and Environment NSW cluster. CCRDC is a self-funded entity and does not rely on annual allocations from the State budget to fund operations.

Until September 2010, CCRDC was known as the Festival Development Corporation. It was responsible for the redevelopment of 152 hectares of government owned land at Mt Penang Parklands in Kariong, for the purposes of recreation, business, sports and tourism. CCRDC's role has since expanded and includes cultivating the Central Coast's economic diversity by focusing on accelerating healthy growth, facilitating private investment and development across the Central Coast.

CCRDC owns the land known as Mt Penang Parklands. The Corporation is charged with securing the on-going management of public open spaces and community facilities at Mt Penang. The Corporation is tasked with protecting and enhancing the broad Mt Penang Parkland Precinct, including remnant

MEDIA RELEASE

Central Coast
Regional Development Corporation

bushland and ensuring that over one hundred years of Central Coast history is preserved and enjoyed by the community.

---Ends---

For more information and interviews contact STEPHANIE PROUSE on 0477 726 490.